

WALKTHROUGH

Last update included : 1.7

Disclaimer(s) :

- 1 - Seven Sins is a narrative text-based game choices and consequences are thought as key elements of gameplay. Use this walkthrough [WT] at your own risk.
 - 2 - The table of contents and variables within the document are responsive when clicked.
 - 3 - This WT isn't exhaustive, too many situations and dialogues change depending of your choices. Take it as main road map, nothing more.
 - 4- Keep in mind this WT is a reflection of the game: a work in progress. Sometimes, I put ideas in the game I find how to use six months later. I try my best not to change things retroactively, to prevent misleading info from an update to another, but I can't promise it.
 - 5- When "[character's name] CP/LP" is mentioned, it means the choice triggers the path. Once on a character's path, you can't switch back!
When "best CP/LP" is mentioned, it means the choice gives more points and/or is considered the canon choice. It doesn't mean that it's the only interesting choice ! If a choice is bad, period, "don't pick" is explicitly stated.
 - 6- The game is structured as below for the cast (doesn't include MC).
Corruption paths are considered easy mode. Best endings are easier to find, and there are only a few bad endings (e.g. Karlee). Basically, you either indulge in immediate lewd content (C), or delay it for characters sake (T) (What ? I'm trying to corrupt players ? Naaaaaaah). Most of the time, pick a Love choice while being on CP grants Trust points rather than Corruption points.

Love paths are considered hard mode. Best endings are reached through points threshold (Trust), and can be missed. However, they are more rewarding and wholesome. Lacking both Love and Trust points leads to bad endings. Basically, you rely on your skills rather than Lust's ones to seduce the cast. Pick a Corruption choice while being on LP grants nothing.

Chaos path can be reached only through Corruption routes (Autumn being the only exception, because she's an early character). Once reached, endings are linked to a character Trust : willing (high), afraid/reluctant (low), etc.
- Lastly, there are specific/secret endings in case of very high L/C, for all paths. Check index.

You're ugly in this => -1T

Molly (final scene, 3h)

Some tips

- If MC CP, you can grab pills inside Gina's drawer (22h) that helps raise alcohol levels twice as fast.
- If Karlee Trust = -10, her drink count must be at 11 to trigger the FFM scene at the end.
- If Lily is too drunk and leave the party, she won't ask you to sleep with her.
- If blessingC, you can have a bonus scene whether with Gina, Molly or Chloe (Kitchen, 23h)
- Lot of content and events have bonus videos if characters are at least tipsy, and drunk at best.
